Course title: Strategic Planning

Facilitators: Karen Powell, Effective School Governance Ltd

Dates: Tues 19th Sept The Old Deanery, Exeter

Cost: £80/£40 SLA/Non SLA (VAT exempt per person)

One of the three main roles of governors is to ensure clarity of vision, ethos and strategic direction. Ofsted will wish to see how the governing body works effectively with leaders to communicate their strategic direction for the school and develop a culture of ambition. During this session we will explore what makes a good strategic plan. We will look at who writes it, how the content is obtained, how the governors' vision is best communicated and how the School Development Plan sets out how the vision will be delivered.

We will then explore how we must ensure that our school improvement plan is being delivered in a timely manner. Governors making visits to school is a crucial part of knowing our school well and helps us to monitor and evaluate the outcomes of teaching and learning. However, do we always know what we should be looking at and what to record on the visit form?

This course will give hints and tips on making the visit process enjoyable for governors and staff teams, explains how we can maximise the value of visits and demonstrates how important it is for governors to learn from what they see on visits and further develop their knowledge.

Performance Management of your Headteacher/CEO - preparation for Appointed Governors/Directors'

Facilitator: John Searson

Date: Tuesday 17th October 2017 The Old Deanery, Exeter 18:00 – 20:00

Cost: £25 per person (VAT Exempt)

Course Description: Schools must have suitable appraisal policies in place to allow staff to be performance managed. Ofsted checks that these impact on pay progression. Headteachers should also have performance management and it is expected that a Headteacher should have his or her performance assessed by 31 December for the previous academic year as well as new targets agreed. Multi-academy trusts (MATs) are free to determine their own performance management processes but most use their best practice prior to conversion to academy status.

This course explains the best practice process for Headteacher/CEO performance management, and will discuss how performance can be assessed and monitored. Guidance will also be given about writing targets that allow governors to measure success and impact easily. There will also be support to ensure that the Christian character of the school/MAT is reflected in the objectives agreed.

Intended Outcomes:

- Greater confidence about school/MAT procedures to manage the performance of the most senior member of the team;
- Better understanding about getting the tone and balance between support and challenge right;
- Embedding good Performance Management into the organisation;
- Greater clarity about objectives, monitoring and success criteria;

Better understanding of how Christian Distinctiveness should feature in objectives

Chairing Skills Tuesday 14th November 2017

The Old Deanery, Exeter 10.00 – 15:00

Cost: £80/£40 SLA rate (VAT Exempt) Karen Powell

Being a chair of governors is a key leadership role as governing bodies are central to the effectiveness and accountability of our schools.

To be effective, you need a good understanding of the role and its responsibilities so that your school gains maximum benefit from the work that you do. An effective chair of governors:

- works with the headteacher to promote and maintain high standards of educational achievement
- ensures that the governing body sets a clear vision, ethos and strategic direction for the school
- With the governing body holds the headteacher to account for the educational performance of the school and its pupils, and for the performance management of staff

During this course, for current chairs or prospective chairs (vice chairs) we will explore the role and determine the skills a good chair should have. We will review how effectiveness can be increased by good use of delegation and we will explore the relationship with the Headteacher and clerk to governors. The course will outline the other roles of the chair in monitoring, accountability, managing complaints and difficult incidents and we will conclude with a question and answer session.

Safer Recruitment

Karen Powell

Course cost £90 per delegate (VAT Exempt) – includes certification and exam fee (maximum 20 delegates)

Organisations and individuals working with children and young people, or who are involved in providing services for them, have a duty to safeguard and promote their welfare. The emphasis on safeguarding in the 2015 Ofsted inspection framework stresses the need for school staff, governors and advisors to have up-to-date knowledge on safeguarding starting from recruitment. - Understand levels of abuse and offender profiles
- Be able to identify key features of staff recruitment that helps deter, or prevent, the appointment of unsuitable people
- Have considered policies and practices to minimise opportunities for abuse or ensure it is reported promptly
- Be able to recognise the importance of maintaining an on-going culture of vigilance

At the end of each of the 4 modules there are 3 - 4 exam questions. However, please don't worry - delegates will be able to discuss the questions with your colleagues before committing answers to the paper.
