

Electoral address

Roger Paul Thomas

“I aim to drive the established Church back to the principles of Christ, I am finding little Christianity in the workings of the ageing Church, and I would expect similar energies being wasted across the land.

In a small way, I will try to re-align the synod back to its roots, by planting seeds of Christian ideas, and follow the Celtic belief of an apple pip is an orchard hidden”.