Launching the new RE syllabus for Devon and Torbay schools

The New Syllabus has been chosen after extensive consultation with teachers and school leaders (primary and secondary). It will offer valuable support to those new to the subject and provide suitable stretch for those who are more experienced. Its pedagogical approach, accessible resources and detailed subject knowledge will make a significant impact on raising the quality of RE in our schools.

This syllabus will be a statutory requirement for maintained schools and is recommended for academies. The Diocese of Exeter recommends it for all Church schools and it is fully compatible with Understanding Christianity and the RE Statement of Entitlement for CofE schools.

It comes with a full curriculum plan, guidance on assessment and detailed support materials including medium-term planning.

Reasons to attend

- To inform schools about how to use the new syllabus as a planning tool, exploring sample teaching units, supportive resources and assessment practice
- To engage with up-to-date ideas led by RE Today consultants who have a national reputation for high quality RE CPD
- To gain fresh insights, strategies and subject knowledge to take away and implement in your own school setting
- To support subject leaders in understanding how best to monitor standards in RE

Resources available

- A hard copy of the whole syllabus: collect this at one of the launch events or contact Ed Pawson to make other arrangements
- Access to the new syllabus in electronic format: details to be given at the launch events and circulated to schools
- Additional, detailed schemes of work: available at a discounted rate at the launch event (eg ~£150 for complete primary school pack) or from RE Today

Fiona Moss taught in a large multi-cultural primary school in Leicester and was a local Authority RE adviser and primary adviser. She joined RE Today in 2009 and now writes and edits for RE Today publications, including the primary series Opening Up RE and Inspiring RE. She supports Leicester Diocese and several local authorities, and trains teachers across the country. She is the Executive Officer of the National Association of Teachers of RE (NATRE).

Stephen Pett has been an adviser with RE Today since 2008. For fourteen years before that he was an RE subject leader in Gloucestershire and an advanced skills teacher for seven years. He has worked with a number of SACREs on developing agreed syllabuses; he writes and edits for RE Today publications and led the development of the 2016 resource, Understanding Christianity.

Please note this launch is a once in five years event for RE: schools are strongly advised to book early.
