

Mission Shed: East Devon Hub

Your local gathering point for learning and encouragement for faith sharing, prayer, growing in faith and exploring different ways to 'be and do church' together.

Monday July 8th

Venue: Boston Tea Party, High Street, Honiton, EX14 1PW

Refreshments from 7pm for a 7.30pm start

Theme: Grass roots discipleship with Jon Curtis, Lay Training officer

What is Mission Shed for?

Vision: Mission shed is all about sharing 'tools' for mission between local churches, to encourage, envision, accompany and learn together.

Mission Shed is a network of local mission resource hubs across the diocese to resource growth in

- Fresh expressions (new forms of church / new congregations)
- Renewed-expressions of inherited church
- Growth in confidence in faith sharing
- Growth in every-day living and learning as a follower of Jesus
- Building connections between local churches and the communities they serve.

- The missional values for the network comprise the following aspects:
 - S – Serving our community
 - H - Healing & Renewal
 - E – Evangelism (Sharing our faith story)
 - D – Discipleship (including growing in prayer)

- WHO is Mission Shed for?
 - Ordained and lay leaders
 - Ministry teams
 - PCC members
 - Individuals with a desire to see their local church grow

Exeter Diocese Mission Shed Network

East Devon – Boston Tea Party Honiton

Tony Nixon, Felicity Carver, Wiz Slater, Caroline Nunns - carolinecunns@gmail.com

Revd Benedict Cambridge - rev.benedict@btinternet.com