

Café Theology

2020

South West Ministry Training Course
adventurous faith | missional hope | grounded love

CAFÉ THEOLOGY

Café Theology is sponsored by the Diocese of Exeter, Plymouth Marjon University, St Mellitus College SW and the South West Ministry Training Course and aims to offer accessible theology to clergy, ministers, readers, ordinands and anyone with an interest in theology.

Seminars are held in the Marjon Chapel on Monday evenings, 7.15 for 7.30 pm, with an opportunity for coffee or a glass of wine before moving to a seminar room to hear a paper followed by discussion, ending at 9 pm.

All are welcome. Marjon offers free evening parking.

To be notified of future events, please email helen.louise@exeter.anglican.org

2020 Programme

- 17th February Why It's OK to be Angry –
 God's Anger and Human Action
Fr Simon Cuff, St Mellitus College
- 16th March Old Testament Ethics
Jonathan Rowe, SWMTC
- 14th May
(Thursday) Prideaux Lecture: Theology of Trust
Prof Theresa Morgan, Oxford University
- 29th June Jerusalem and Antioch:
 two essential models of mission
Philip Mounstephen, Bishop of Truro
- 20th July Mayflower 400:
 Faith and Freedom
Nick McKinnel, Bishop of Plymouth
- 12th October Is religion compatible with social progress?
Prof Grace Davie, Exeter University
- 2nd November Angry West, Angry Religion?
Prof Rob Warner, Marjon

