Dear Colleagues,

Welcome to our Network Events and Training Courses programme for the academic year 2022 – 2023. It can be found on the website here where you will also find our online booking form. As you will see there is a wide range of support and training on offer. Much of this is provided to you free of charge. This can only happen as many schools subscribe to our Service Level Agreement. The SLA enables schools / school groupings to access personalised bespoke training and supports our wider work. If you don't yet subscribe, please do consider doing so – information can be found here. The SLA runs from January – December each year.

We are keen to add value to your work and encourage you and your school community to engage in our forums, hubs and training. We look forward to working closely with you.

Diocesan Network: Becoming Trauma-informed Schools Network (6 part network)

Audience: Trust / school leaders and all school staff

Do you want to know how to make your school more attuned to the needs of children and young people who have experienced trauma? These sessions focus on:

- different types of trauma children may experience, including single event, chronic and adverse childhood experiences,
- whole school approaches to trauma-informed practice to embed a culture which enables flourishing for all,
- supporting children and young people who have experienced bereavement and the impact of grief and loss,
- neuroscience and how trauma affects children’s brains, and how this helps us to provide support,
- overcoming barriers to learning with practical classroom strategies to support children whose development has been adversely impacted by traumatic early life experiences,
- supporting social functioning and relationships, leading to more positive interactions / behaviours in school,
- supporting children whose trauma is negatively impacting behaviour, including those at risk of exclusion.

This programme draws upon teaching from experts: Professor Eamon McCrory (UCL/ Anna Freud), Rebecca Brooks (Adoption UK), Louise Bomber (Touchbase), Kiran Gill (The Difference), David Trickey (UK Trauma Council) and Deborah Barnett (TLG).

Diocesan Network: Retreat for School Leaders

Audience: School leaders

Rest and relaxation; good food and good conversation alongside times of stillness and silence. Mill House, a beautiful thatched farmhouse set in 7 acres of Devon countryside, combines the atmosphere of a centuries old building with the comfort of a modern home. Exploring spirituality is challenging - it helps you reconnect with yourself, with others, with God. It takes time to think about the pattern and rhythm of your life and you can do that here.

Diocesan Network: Secondary School Leadership Forum

Audience: Secondary School Leaders (staff)

There are five Church of England secondary schools in the Diocese of Exeter. This forum aims to bring leaders together to focus on matters relating specifically to secondary church schools but that may also be relevant to community schools. It is anticipated that two of the three sessions across the year will be school-based giving leaders the opportunity to learn from each other and support the development of secondary provision in our diocese. The Diocesan Education Team will help facilitate this forum, coming alongside you to share expertise, diocesan updates, priorities and opportunities. Community Secondary schools are welcome to join.

Diocesan Network: SIAMS Hubs

Audience: SIAMS leads, plus staff and Governance

Although these sessions are area specific, it really doesn't matter if you sign up to come to a meeting in a different part of the Diocese. These are informal meetings, designed to: support Church of England schools in the development of their Christian distinctiveness; act as a forum at which to share information about SIAMS related matters; allow sharing of ideas and best practice; and give an opportunity for the exploration and discussion of any challenges.
