

Diocese of Exeter Safeguarding Privacy Notice

The Exeter Diocesan Board of Finance Limited (EDBF) is committed to protecting and protecting your personal data. Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018, (DPA 2018).

This privacy notice explains what to expect when the Diocese of Exeter collect your personal information. There are several policies and procedures which support this privacy notice, these are listed in Section 12 below.

1. Data Controller(s)

Depending on the data type and nature of your relationship with the Church of England within the Diocese of Exeter, the data controller(s) are (either individually or jointly):

- Being involved in litigation, dispute resolution and judicial process (including liaison with external advisers)
- Publishing resources, reports and reviews
- Undertaking research and statistical analysis
- Managing archived records for historical and research reasons, including the management and administration of access to our collections

3. The categories of personal data we collect:

The types of information we process include:

- personal details
- contact information
- family details
- lifestyle and social circumstances
- employment and education details
- housing needs

We also process “special categories” of information that may include:

- race;
- ethnic origin;
- politics;
- religion;
- trade union membership;
- health;
- sex life; or
- sexual orientation
- criminal allegations, proceedings or convictions.

We process personal information about:

- complaints of misconduct and unlawful acts
- individuals involved in or connected with legal claims, inquiries, reviews and dispute resolution
- professional advisers and consultants
- children and parents
- individuals whose safety has been put at risk

4. The lawful basis for using your information

We collect and use personal data as explained below.

- Legitimate interest – we may need to process your information to undertake safeguarding tasks, including doing all that we reasonably can to ensure that no-one is at risk of harm during Church of England activities.

Legitimate Interest Assessment

We have undertaken a Legitimate Interest Assessment which sets out why we have a legitimate interest.

We have a specific purpose with a defined benefit	The consideration of matters which are brought to our attention in order that, amongst other things, we can identify any potential wrongdoing, inappropriate behaviour, or unlawful conduct, and put in place a safer way of working across the Church of England.
The processing is necessary to achieve the defined benefit.	Unless we properly appreciate the detail of the matters to which you refer we cannot take steps to ensure that we have provided the most appropriate safeguarding response.
The purpose is balanced against, and does not override, the interests, rights and freedoms of data subjects.	There is the risk of significant and/or serious harm to others if unsuitable individuals are appointed. This risk is greatest where allegations are not properly addressed. This is balanced against, and does not override, your interests, rights and freedoms.

- Legal obligation – we may need to process your information in order to comply with a legal obligation, such as under the Inquiries Act 2005, which may compel us to provide personal data for the purposes of a statutory inquiry, or a referral to the Disclosure and Barring Service under the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006, or an order of a court or tribunal.

Special categories & criminal information

- Substantial public interest (protecting the public against dishonesty etc.) – we may need to process your information where necessary for the protection of members of the public generally against seriously improper conduct, and from any failures in connection with, the Church of England’s activities, or for safeguarding purposes.

This lawful basis is applied in the UK only, with reference to the UK GDPR Article 9(2)(g), and the Data Protection Act 2018 Schedule 2, paragraph 11. For those based outside the UK in other jurisdictions, they will have to ensure that their Member State law provides similar or equivalent use of 9(2)(g).

- Legal claims – we may need to process your information where there is a legal claim, or in connection with a judicial process.
- Archiving - we may keep your information for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes.

5. Who we collect from or share your information with:

Where necessary (or required), we collect from or share information with:

- Parishes e.g. Parochial Church Councils (PCCs) and relevant PCC members, diocesan bodies, bishops' offices and cathedrals.
- candidates, prospective employees, employees or other staff members (including contractors, workers, consultants and volunteers, including members of any "Core Group")
- legal representatives
- Risk assessors appointed in accordance with the provisions of the Safeguarding (Clergy Risk Assessment) Regulations 2016
- parties and individuals involved in or connected with legal claims, inquiries, reviews and dispute resolution (including mediation and arbitration)
- healthcare, social and welfare organisations or providers of health, social care or welfare services
- educational institutions
- governance bodies and committees
- 3rd party data processors

Once your information has been collected by a church body in the Diocese of Exeter it may be used by other church bodies, where necessary, to provide a complete service to you, and we do this on the lawful bases listed above. It is for this reason that we link your information together, for example, to save you providing your information more than once.

6. Your personal data will not be sent to countries outside the EEA without your consent, and with necessary safeguards.

Church bodies within the Diocese of Exeter will not share your information with countries outside of the UK or EEA without your consent and necessary safeguards.

7. How long do we keep your information?

There is often a legal and/or business reason for keeping your information for a set period, as stated in our retention schedule.

8. Security

We are committed to ensuring that your personal data is secure. We limit access to data on a need to know basis and test our security practices and technologies.

Employees and temporary workers are required to follow policies and procedures and complete mandatory training to understand data protection and information security.

If a data breach does occur, we will do everything in our power to limit the damage. In the case of a high-risk data breach, and depending on the circumstances, we will inform you about the breach and any remedial actions to prevent any further damage. We will also inform the Information Commissioner's Office of any qualifying data breaches.

9. Your personal data will not be used for any automated decision making without access to human intervention.

10. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the DPA 2018 and the UK GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

1. The right to request a copy of your personal data
2. The right to rectify your data if you think it is inaccurate or incomplete
3. The right to request that your data being erased, in certain circumstances
4. The right to restrict processing of your data, in certain circumstances
5. The right to request that we transfer your data to you or another organisation, in certain circumstances
6. The right to object to our processing of your data if the process forms part of our public tasks, or is in our legitimate interests
