

DIOCESE
OF EXETER
THE CHURCH
OF ENGLAND
IN DEVON

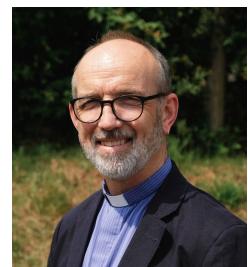

Cultivate

Training & Development
for all in the Diocese of Exeter
September 2025 - July 2026

Introduction

I think much of my learning when I was younger was under duress. The motivating factor was the threat of failure, or being less successful compared to others, or, even worse, the shame of looking foolish in front of everyone else. Fear is very motivating! With those kinds of educators, the task was always trying to work out what it was they wanted and then give it to them. It was an 'outside-in kind' of learning. The enjoyment was only in getting the good marks at the end, and if that didn't happen, the whole experience was unpleasant. However, I've been fortunate enough to meet ministers, teachers, mentors, coaches and spiritual directors who saw the potential already in me and wanted to encourage me to discover it for myself. Instead of giving me answers, they asked me questions, instead of setting a bar for me to jump over, they invited me into a new country to explore. They shared their passion, they invited curiosity, they made the journey of learning more important than the assessment at the end. These are the kind of learning opportunities I would like to offer in this diocese, and this is the kind of educator I aspire to be. And there is nothing more interesting, miraculous, beautiful, stimulating and companionable than learning to follow Christ and then learning to minister in the Church of God. If you have that passion, do share it so that we can be learners together.

Revd Preb Ian Bussell
Director of Mission and Ministry

Creation Care: Using the Energy Footprint Tool

Thursday 5th March

7.30pm-9pm

The Energy Footprint Tool (EFT) is a quick, easy-to-use tool designed to help your church calculate its carbon footprint using information from your energy bills. It's an essential step towards understanding your energy usage, enabling you to track progress over time and identify opportunities to reduce carbon emissions and care for creation. Completing the Tool can also help you to be considered for relevant grant funding.

Venue: Online

Led by: Emma Kemp, Net Zero Carbon Officer, Diocese of Exeter

Who is it for? Anyone who has questions about accessing and using the Energy Footprint Tool or wants to find out how it can benefit their church.

Equity, Diversity, Inclusion and Justice Training:

What does justice look like in collaboration with your parish?

The next EDIJ training session will be on Tuesday 17th March 2026 at The Old Deanery, Exeter. Lorraine Prince (National Society) will be leading us in a session entitled 'What does justice look like in collaboration with your parish?' Lorraine summarises the event: This session explores what it means to have authentic collaboration between schools and parishes. We'll consider what it means to create 'psychologically safe spaces' where differences, of background, belief, and experience, can be named, understood, and valued rather than avoided. Participants will reflect on how navigating difference with empathy and courage strengthens relationships and deepens a shared commitment to justice. Through dialogue and practical examples, we'll uncover what justice looks like when it is lived out collectively, in actions, language, and partnerships that reflect the dignity and belonging of all.

Please put this in your diaries as this would be a great opportunity for schools and clergy to spend time together looking at this important area of work. Further details to follow. To book for this event please email education@exeter.anglican.org.

Venue: Old Deanery, Exeter

Who is it for: schools and parishes together, facilitated by Lorraine Prince from the National Society.

Creation care: environment is tool for Mission

Wednesday 22nd April

7.30pm-9pm

GDPR & Data Protection

Tuesday 10th March

2pm – 4pm

In summary the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) is a law that establishes obligations for businesses and provides rights for citizens to keep their personal information safe. To comply with this law, businesses must establish a data protection compliance programme which will stand up to cyber attacks but also be accessible, should people exercise their right to see what data is held about them. Failure to comply with the regulations can lead to undermining confidence in institutions and result in significant fines and compensation claims.

This training will provide you with a basic understanding of GDPR and the Data Protection Act, in an attempt to provide you with the confidence to know what can and can't be shared and when considered along with the new Church of England data retention guidance, you will gain a greater understanding of how long information must be kept for, as well as how to record Data Protection breaches and where to find useful information to help you in your day to day roles.

Angela is the Senior Operations Officer at the Diocese of Exeter and among my duties is that of the Diocese Data Protection Officer. I am always happy to help decipher what can be a tricky bit of legislation and I will never consider any question to be a silly question, as it is all learning!

FURTHER ON WITH THE ENNEAGRAM

JUDY FRIEND & JEANIE HONEY

A map of human development and growth
A powerful resource for understanding self & others

Part 3: Subtypes of the Enneagram

Understanding a person's Enneagram type helps us to see why people are so different and why we behave the way we do. Each of the nine Enneagram types has a different focus of attention which consistently influences where our energy goes and how we respond. The particular drive and focus of our type are often not in our conscious awareness and yet they are at the core of our reactions, behaviour and relationships. Once we have an understanding of our type, we have the freedom and awareness to wake up and choose to behave in different, less reactive ways.

Come and join us on 21/22 March 2026 (9am-5pm) in the beautiful Exe Valley. This weekend we will focus on the Instincts and Subtypes of the Enneagram which gives a whole new level of depth in our understanding of ourselves and others. People sometimes find that their Enneagram type seems to only partially fit them, but in discovering their dominant instinct and subtype, suddenly it all rings true and brings greater clarity for the path of growth. Come with a curious mind and open heart to discover new Enneagram content which is accessible, actionable and useful.

We offer a stunning Studio space on the banks of the River Exe. Refreshments and cakes are provided; please bring your own lunch. Total cost for the 2 days is £120. Book soon as spaces are limited. It is non-residential; advice on local accommodation is available on booking - judy@red-earth.org. Our expectation is that participants will know their Enneagram type and have an introductory level of knowledge of the Enneagram.

ABOUT US

Jeanie Honey is an accredited Enneagram teacher and coach. More details at www.exeterenneagram.com

Judy Friend is a Psychosynthesis Counsellor (BACP) and Enneagram coach. More details at www.judyfriendcounselling.com and contact her at judy@red-earth.org

Your Enneagram Type

A requirement before you attend the retreat is the completion of a typing interview to discover your Enneagram type if you don't already know it. You can book one with Jeanie: email her at exeterenneagram@gmail.com or take the online test at: <https://cpenneagram.com/taketestnow>. Further details available on booking.

Church for All

Wednesday 22nd April

10am – 3pm

Claire Reynolds our Disability Advisor introduces a day geared towards making your churches and worshipping spaces more accessible for those with disabilities, additional needs or neurodivergence. Taking a holistic view, and with the help of experts in the field, we will look at the whole range of church life. From the physical building, to looking at how to make children's and youth groups more accessible, and to different services and groups - what barriers are there to people fully hearing the good news and engaging with the life of the community. We will be looking at various ways of breaking down those barriers - and how making one small change can make a massive difference.

Exploring Ministry

Monday 9th February

7.30pm-9pm

If you are feeling a nudge from God, please talk to someone about it, and come along to this evening to explore some of the ways God calls people into ministry. God uses people in a whole variety of ways, in the first half of life and in the second, mostly not ordained, but some who are. How might God be calling you, or someone you know?

There will be space to reflect on God's calling, to hear from different speakers about different ministry avenues and opportunity to ask questions.

"Just wanted to say how much I enjoyed last night - it was brilliant and really, really helpful to hear from others already in lay and ordained ministry positions."

Venue: TBC Barnstaple area

Led by: Rev Hannah Mears and others (see above)

Leadership and Management

Into Inc incumbency

Into Inc incumbency is a series of stand-alone workshops on all aspects of the life of an incumbent. It is an essential part of IME for third year 'incumbent' curates and those new to the diocese taking up an incumbency for the first time. However, experienced clergy who want a refresher on any individual session are very welcome, as are LLMs and Churchwardens who would find any session helpful. Please email Susie Watson if you would like further information.

Who is it for? New Inc incumbents and anyone wanting a refresher on a particular topic.

Coaching, mentoring and supervision: skills for enabling the ministry of others (4 Day Course)

Monday 2nd February 9am-5pm

Tuesday 3rd February 9am-5pm

Monday 11th May 9am-5pm

Tuesday 12th May 9am-5pm

Coaching is essentially the skill of helping someone think through their stuff in their own way. It's a core skill for anyone enabling and empowering the ministry of others. Mentors use coaching skills and bring their own experience into the mix. Supervisors also use coaching skills but bring in other aspects of the role, the organisation and the people we serve. This four-day course is learning through practice so that, like learning to ride a bike, what feels clunky at first becomes part of your practice by day four.

Who is this for?

Anyone wanting to enable the ministry of others, those in supervisory roles such as training incumbents, rural deans and team leaders, mentors, and those who may have the heart and the time to offer coaching to others in the diocese.

Ian Bussell is the Director of Mission and Ministry. He trained as a teacher and then as a psychotherapist before ordination. He has had two parish roles where he has been a training incumbent. In the last few years, he has developed coaching and mindfulness in the diocese of Gloucester.

Wednesday 4th February

11am-12noon

Have you ever wanted to share your faith or promote your church online, but didn't know where to start? This beginner-friendly session will introduce you to the basics of creating simple, yet engaging social media videos using your smartphone, to promote church events and connect with your community online.

The session will cover key principles, such as knowing your audience, keeping your message clear, and using story-telling to make your videos more engaging. We will explore practical tips on planning short scripts, filming and editing with smartphones, choosing the right location, lighting, and adding captions or music. We will also touch on free tools and resources to make editing easier. By the end of the session, you should feel more confident in creating videos that reflect the heart of your congregation and reach beyond the church walls.

Failure in leadership

Thursday 23rd April

10.30am to 1pm

If we're honest most of us spend a lot of time feeling we're not good enough as Christian leaders. We're all too well aware of the ways in which we let people and even God down. Scripture is meant to inspire and encourage us, yet often the stories of the heroes of the Bible leave some of us feeling even more inadequate. The truth is that most of the heroes of scripture are far from heroic. Their failures and weaknesses massively outweigh their strengths and yet God calls, uses and loves them anyway.

James and Liz have recently written a book together, "Normal Imperfect People - The 'failures' God used to teach about leadership." In this session, they will be sharing some of the insights about Biblical characters from the book and some of their own stories of failure and weakness.

Sermon on the Mount Part 2

Wednesday 18th March

9.30am-12.30pm

Sermon on the Mount part 2 (no need to have attended part 1!)

One of the greatest gifts of Jesus to us is his Sermon on the Mount - but some of the ways we interpret it can seem like bad news in terms of how high the bar is set or what we are required to do. This day continues +Mike's look at Jesus' teaching on the Sermon on the Mount (looking at the second half of Mt 6 and then Mt 7) and how it is wonderfully wise teaching, enabling our spiritual transformation, a transformation rooted in the action of actually following Jesus and his teaching in ways which enable us to begin to take on something of His character. The Sermon on the Mount is not about a new and sterner legalism but pointers to what life can become for devoted disciples and apprentices of Jesus. There will be talks during the course of the time with plenty of room for discussion and reflection.

Repeat from October and repeated in June

Venue: St Jude's Church, Beaumont Road, Plymouth, PL4 9BJ

Led by: Bishop Mike

Refreshments will be provided

Who is it for? Aimed at all clergy and LLMs, others would also be warmly welcomed.

Sermon on the Mount Part 2

Tuesday 30th June

1:30pm – 5pm

Sermon on the Mount part 2 (no need to have attended part 1!)

One of the greatest gifts of Jesus to us is his Sermon on the Mount - but some of the ways we interpret it can seem like bad news in terms of how high the bar is set or what we are required to do. This day continues +Mike's look at Jesus' teaching on the Sermon on the Mount (looking at the second half of Mt 6 and then Mt 7) and how it is wonderfully wise teaching, enabling our spiritual transformation, a transformation rooted in the action of actually following Jesus and his teaching in ways which enable us to begin to take on something of His character. The Sermon on the Mount is not about a new and sterner legalism but pointers to what life can become for devoted disciples and apprentices of Jesus. There will be talks during the course of the time with plenty of room for discussion and reflection.

Brilliant Basics – theology for everyone

Brilliant Basics – theology for everyone is new for 2025, we are starting a series of short courses offering an exciting opportunity for everyone to explore the theology behind the big questions about life and the Christian faith. Students can choose whether to write reflections and receive a certificate at the end, or to sit back and enjoy the learning without the pressure of submitting written work. The first course will begin in October 2025, looking at the Old Testament. Future courses are likely to cover deep dives into sections of the Bible, theological explorations of aspects of faith (e.g. The Kingdom of God, The Lord's Prayer), topics in Christian spirituality, church history and aspects of contemporary faith such as ecotheology. Each course will run for 6 weeks. You can choose between an online course or an in person taught course. Keep an eye on our website and social media for course details and how to sign up. These courses are designed for anyone and everyone who wants to expand their thinking and experience of God through studying with others, led by our team of experienced teaching staff.

Venue: In person

Led by: - SWMTC

SWMTC

Various dates and times

South West Ministry Training Course (SWMTC) provides part-time training which is Christ-centred, world-engaging and rooted in local communities.

Our students are lay and ordained people learning generously together. We learn, we laugh, and we cry together as we come together, staff and students, to continue to discern the call of God in our lives. Although our foundation is in the Church of England in Devon and Cornwall, we welcome students from other traditions and elsewhere to join us in learning and worshipping together.

Whatever your interest, on this website you'll find details of all our courses, including information about time commitment and fees. Download our course booklet or just get in touch and we will be happy to help.

What We Do

We place trainee Children and Youth Workers with churches, local ministries and schools work projects throughout the region.

We also resource local churches with training events, residencies and leadership development opportunities for young people.

SWYM work with local partners to put positive Christian role models wherever children and young people are. We want to reach out to those who don't know Jesus and share the love of God with them. We also want to see young people become Christians and then encourage them to be a shining light where they are.

We now also offer opportunities to engage in missional leadership in settings around the South West for those with a heart for community transformation. We are excited about seeing how we might resource local churches to reach out to their community in new ways.

We have a great team based across the region, but we need many more people to join us in our mission to the people of the South West.

New Wine Leadership Network

Equipping Leaders, Empowering Younger Generations & Multiplying churches

Leading a church is a calling filled with significant possibility and potential but carries with it a weight of responsibility and challenge. Our experience is that the more we journey with others the better leaders we become. That's why we created the New Wine Leadership Network—a movement of church leaders committed to seeing local churches thrive, empowered by the Holy Spirit, and transforming their communities.

You're on the frontline of Kingdom work and we are here to help, equip, encourage, and walk alongside you in every season of leadership.
