

Teachers of RE in all phases of education are invited to attend the 2026
South West Peninsula LTLRE 14th Annual Conference

'You can only be safe and secure in a society that practices tolerance, cherishes harmony and can celebrate difference'. Rabbi Hugo Gryn

LTLRE Area 1 RE Conference 2026
RE: Academically Rich, Socially
Connective

Friday 2nd October 2026
9.30-3.30pm

St Mellion Conference Centre, Nr Saltash
Cost: £90

Keynote speakers:

Katie Freeman: the Place of RE in the Curriculum
Joyce Miller: RE and Social Cohesion

Panel session to include Zoroastrian, Sikh, Muslim, Hindu, Humanist,
Christian, Buddhist speakers

Workshops will include:

- Inspiring RE at Early Years/KS1
- Planning and assessment in primary RE
- Being scholarly in secondary RE
- Authentic Christianity
- Diverse perspectives and 'lived experience' from faith and belief speakers
- How to create local RE
- RE and SIAMS for CofE schools

For more information and to register – click HERE

Programme

Timings	Details	Rooms
9.00 - 9.30am	Arrival and welcome
9.30 - 9.35	Ed Pawson, Jo Hunter and Greg Parekh Introduction to the conference	St Mellion A
9.35 - 10.20	Keynote 1	St Mellion A
10.20 – 11.00	Keynote 2	St Mellion A
11.00 – 11.15	Refreshment break
11.15 – 12.10pm	Workshop 1	4 parallel workshops
12.10m - 1.05	Lunch break
1.05 - 1.25	RE Updates and Local Groups	St Mellion A
1.25 - 2.20	Workshop 2	4 parallel workshops
2.20 - 2.25	Cake and Tea
2.25 – 3.25	Panel discussion: Exploring diverse perspectives Interviewing and dialoguing with a number of guests who represent diverse religious and non-religious worldview traditions	St Mellion A
3.25 – 3.30	Evaluations and Close	