OCTOBER PRAYER DIARY

Lord, we thank you that you made a way for us to be with you, to be saved from our sin through your son Jesus Christ, who stood in our place and sacrificed himself. He became our Passover lamb, and we are covered by his precious blood, help us to remember this every day. Amen.

Saturday 1st – Saturday 8th

We thank you that we are a pilgrim people, sojourners on the earth, journeying towards our true home in heaven. We give thanks for Devon Pilgrim, which invites us to wander and wonder with you. We pray that your Holy Spirit would be our compass, your Word would be our map, and your Son Jesus would be our living water and our bread of life.

1. We pray for all those being licensed as Lay Ministers across the Diocese today. We give thanks for the gifts you have given them, and for their willingness to respond to your call to serve. We pray that as they teach others, lead worship, and encourage the church, they too may grow in wisdom and understanding.

2. On the International Day of Non-Violence, we remember that Jesus taught us to turn the other cheek. We long for a world where people in power do not use violence to achieve change but strive to keep peace. "Blessed are the peacemakers for they will be called children of God." (Matthew 5:9)

3. In our link with Melanesia, we pray for the Society of St Francis Brothers and their work on illegal and unregulated logging. We give thanks for their courage in standing up for communities whose land is being stripped of ancient trees, we pray you would give them perseverance, Lord.

4. On the Feast Day of St Francis of Assisi, we pray his words:

'I beg you, Lord, let the fiery, gentle power of your love take possession of my soul, and snatch it away from everything under heaven, that I may die for love of your love as you saw fit to die for love of mine.'

5. On World Teachers' Day we pray for teachers across Devon, may they know your guiding hand as they shape our young people. Please help them explore new ways of engaging with students, we pray that your love would sustain them.

6. For the Exeter Network Church Mission Community, and its clergy Jon Soper and Bob Wallington.
